

3rd Annual NODN EDPC
Fostering Strategic Economic Development Partnerships in Northwestern Ontario
10:30am -3:00pm Wednesday March 24, 2010
Italian Cultural Centre, 132 Algoma Street South, Thunder Bay, ON
The event will follow the Anti-Discrimination and Immigration Portal Launch

Objective

The objective of the event is to gain knowledge on how to foster strategic economic development partnerships in Northwestern Ontario as shared through the perspective of First Nations, municipalities, business, private development, and Federal/Provincial agencies. Presenters will be asked to provide details on the keys to partnership building and how it relates to building growth in economic development for Northwestern Ontario. Delegates attending are able to network amongst other economic development practitioners and those organizations and individuals related to economic development from communities throughout Northwestern Ontario. The outcome of this event will show a greater knowledge of economic development partnership building and will provide the opportunity to share ideas and projects. This all will culminate towards a greater understanding of a strategic action plan for Northwestern Ontario. All economic development practitioners and related municipal and business representatives in Northwestern Ontario should attend; in addition to those attending the Anti-Discrimination and Immigration Portal morning event held at the same location.

Agenda

A detailed agenda will be available soon.
