

Northern Food Connections

Get Fresh, Eat Local, Go Wild

Thursday, March 4 - Saturday, March 6
Lakehead University - Thunder Bay

This is a first-ever conference, held in conjunction with the Food Security Research Network's annual March Food Forum, that will strengthen the capacity of our local food system, increase connections among local food partners and enhance our ability to grow, market and enjoy local product.

Featuring keynote speaker Margaret Webb, acclaimed Canadian writer, author of Apples to Oysters: A Food Lover's Tour of Canadian Farms, the Crisis on the Farm Toronto Star series and numerous other food and farming articles.

Who should attend?

- Anyone interested in local food issues;
- Existing and potential farmers;
- Chefs, cooks, caterers and retailers interested in using more local products; and
- Consumers who want to eat more local food.

For more information and to register, www.northernfoodconnections.ca

Attention Regional Delegates:

Travel subsidies available on a "first come, first served" basis! Visit the web site for details.

