

TORC Presents:

Transforming Northern Health: Innovations Making a Difference

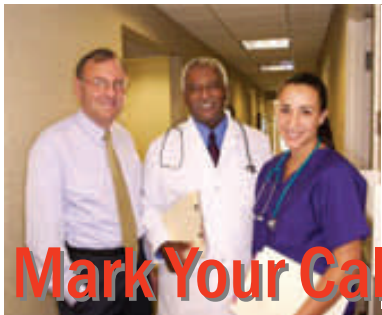

JOIN US for a day of shared learning and dialogue on the innovations re-shaping northern health.

Wednesday March 31, 2010 • 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

Algoma University • Sault Ste Marie

Forum Fee: $65 • Youth/Student Rate: $25 • Continental Breakfast & Lunch Included

For Program Updates, Details & Registration: www.torc.on.ca or call 519-826-4128

We'll explore:

- ◆ Current trends in rural & northern health care
- ◆ Innovative community solutions
- ◆ Health innovations and economic development opportunities
- ◆ How rural and northern communities can adopt innovations to improve health and health care

Who should attend?

- ◆ Elected officials
- ◆ LHINs & CCAC boards and staff
- ◆ Community-based health organizations
- ◆ Health care providers
- ◆ Hospital boards and staff
- ◆ Public Health Units
- ◆ Rural residents

Forum Program Highlights:

- ◆ Keynote address by health professional
- ◆ Setting the Stage: Health Care in Northern Ontario
- ◆ Research, Innovation and Economic Development in Northern Health Panel
- ◆ Innovative Community Solutions Panel
- ◆ Facilitated roundtable discussion & Networking opportunities

Steering Committee Partners:

- ◆ Algoma Public Health
- ◆ Group Health Centre
- ◆ Sault Ste. Marie Innovations Centre
- ◆ FedNor
- ◆ Health Informatics, Algoma University